Field Trip Fun Finds

In the Museum

Look for the following items that we've discussed while reading our Social Studies novels or Diary of Anne Frank and "Call of the Wild" in Language Arts. Check off ALL that you find.

In "Fully Furnished" Exhibit

spinning wheel

settee (by the old fashioned training seats) Anne Frank

looms

In "Industrial Revolution" Exhibit

looms (more industrialized)

Spinning Jenny

reapers

printing press

hoop skirts—can you imagine?

Have your group (if time) work on the Model T assembly line.

In "Liberty and Justice" Exhibit powder horns

life masks/hand casts

a copy of Common Sense by Thomas Paine

*MUSTS

chair Lincoln shot in

Rosa Parks bus

segregated bus stations

jail cell for women's suffrage slave chains and head bondage—can you imagine?

Others that are COOL (ok, my opinion)

bedrooms/technology by generations (a laugh)

airplanes developed by Ford (he actually had an airline for a while)

Presidential limousines (see the car Kennedy was shot in) the car timeline (compare the prices)

The Village

Tons of cool places—these are my favorites and directly places we've discussed in class.

*Gunsolly Carding Shop—see how Mercy and Kit carded wool—can you imagine?

*Printing Office and Tin Shop---Paul Revere's job

*Miller School

*Ford Motor Company

*J.R. General Store—old fashioned candy for sale, etc.

*Wright Brothers Bicycle Shop—you'll study in 10th grade.

Logan County Courthouse—Lincoln actually practiced law here!

*Dr. Howard's Office (really cool medicines)

*Carousel (fun to ride--$2 a person) Last year's prices—maybe a bit more

*Model T ride ($5 a person) Last year's prices—maybe a bit more

*Thomas Edison's Menlo Park—so cool! Will study in 10th grade.

*George Washington Carver's Cabin

Hermitage Slave Quarters—must see—tell the man in here that you're from DeWitt Junior High and listen to his stories (he promised us that he'd work this day—great story teller and knows a TON about slavery time period).

*Suszuehanna Plantation (how plantation homes looked)

Frozen Custard stand ($4 buys a HUGE cone)--Ok, nothing to do with history, but oh so yummy. Last year's prices—maybe a bit more
